

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is an Indian government-sponsored public service program conducted by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. It was launched in 1969, commemorating the birth centenary of Mahatma Gandhi. The primary objective of NSS is to develop the personality and character of student youth through voluntary community service. Here's a detailed overview of the NSS:

Objectives

1. Developing Students' Personality: To inculcate a sense of social responsibility and community service in students.
2. Promoting Civic Consciousness: Encouraging students to understand the community in which they work and identify its needs and problems.
3. Developing Leadership Skills: Providing opportunities for students to participate in community service, thereby developing leadership qualities.
4. Creating Awareness: Promoting national integration and awareness among students about social issues.

Activities

NSS activities are broadly divided into two categories:

1. Regular Activities: These are carried out throughout the year and include awareness drives, educational programs, environmental conservation, health and hygiene camps, and other community development activities.
2. Special Camping Programs: These are typically organized for 7-10 days, focusing on intensive community service in rural or urban areas. The themes often include health, sanitation, literacy, and environmental conservation.

Structure

- University Level: Sharnbasva University has two NSS coordinators responsible for overseeing the program.
- Volunteers: Students from various academic disciplines volunteer for NSS activities.

Benefits to Volunteers

- Personal Growth: Development of personal skills such as leadership, teamwork, and problem-solving.
- Social Awareness: Increased awareness of social issues and the role of an individual in addressing them.
- Academic Recognition: Some universities and colleges offer academic credits for participation in NSS.
- Career Opportunities: Experience gained through NSS can be beneficial in various professional fields, especially in social work, public administration, and community development.

Impact

The NSS has had a significant impact on both the volunteers and the communities they serve. By engaging students in meaningful community service, NSS helps in creating a socially responsible and aware youth population.

Motto

The motto of NSS is "Not Me But You," which reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and appreciation of other people's points of view.

The NSS continues to play a vital role in promoting youth development and contributing to community welfare across India.

NSS Activities
