VICE-Chancellor of Sharnbasva University Dr Niranjan V Nisty said "Tourism Sector which was hit hard during Covid-19 pandemic is looking up. We can already see green shoots in tourism sector and the future appears to be bright for the sector in India".

Speaking at the World Tourism Day programme organised by the Department of Tourism and Travel of Sharnbasva University on Thursday, Dr Nisty said "Tourism sector and its subsidiaries were the one sector which suffered a severe blow due to the outbreak of Covid-19. Not only the domestic tourism was severely affected, international tourism was also badly hit due to the outbreak of virus."

However, with the fall in Covid cases and economy returning to normalcy, it presents a rosy picture for tourism sector, Dr Nisty said.

Mahadasoha Peetathipathi of the Sharanabasaveshwar Samasthan and Chancellor of Sharnbasva University Sharanabasavappa Appa and Chairperson of Sharanabasaveshwar Vidya Vardak Sangha Matoshri Dakshayani Avva released two books titled 'International Geography of Tourism IATA Area I and II' and 'International Geography of Tourism IATA area III' penned by Vanishree, Dilpkumar Ambadas Patil, Rohan M Mehtre, Kamalashree Kanti and Priya Patil.

Secretary of Sharnbasaveshwar Vidya Vardak Sangha Basavaraj Deshmukh who is also member of the Board of Governors of the Sharnbasva University who presided over the programme echoed the views expressed by Vice-Chancellor.

He said "the outbreak of pandemic has infused health consciousness among the people and lifestyle of the people in general has also ch

In her address nutritionist Dr Sheela Siddaram said "one of the major reasons for malnutrition among children and adults in the country was change in food habits and ignoring traditional food practices.
